

NBN Business Game

A game where teamwork the dough, creativity the sauce, and standards the olive oil are on the pizza. Discover the role and value of standards within your business wrapped in a game about pizza, investments, and a touch of competition.

For whom?

Whether you're a seasoned student with a passion for pizza, a budding entrepreneur seeking the perfect taste of business success, or just wanting to understand the importance of standards, this game is for you!

What awaits you?

A challenging game where you develop your own pizza machine, but there's a twist. Before you see the golden cheese of your first pizza melt, you must create an investment plan. As if that's not enough, there are competitors who have stolen your idea and are now trying to grab your slice of the pizza.

What are the ingredients of the game?

Interested to play this business game?

Contact edu@nbn.be